

JAGDA INTERNATIONAL STUDENT POSTER AWARD 2023

<https://jagda-gakusei.jp/en/>

"JAGDA International Student Poster Award" was established with the aim to discover and acknowledge outstanding young talents from across the world and to promote the further advancement of graphic design. Posters allow ideas to be freely expressed through the rich mixture of graphics and texts, giving them the instantaneous power to move the viewers' hearts and create visual communications beyond nations and regions. Our hope is to create a better understanding of each other and to share international issues through the means of posters. We look forward to your challenges!

Copyright Guidelines

To All Applicants

- Any work that plagiarizes and/or copies another creator's work (except for those surpassing 70 years after the creator's death) is considered copyright infringement and ineligible to apply. Additionally, any work that incorporates and/or modifies parts of another creator's work (as aforementioned), including those intended as satire and/or parody, may also be considered copyright infringement. Therefore, if referencing another work, it is mandatory for applicants to provide further information on the referenced work under "Design Concept", including its creator's name, medium (where it was published), year of publication, and the purpose of incorporation/modification. Failure to provide this information will be considered plagiarism and/or copy of another creator's work.

- Applicants are responsible for making sure that their work does not infringe another creator's copyright before making a submission.

- Should JAGDA determine that a submitted work infringes another creator's work, its selection and/or award will be cancelled and forfeit, even after they have been confirmed and publicly announced. The same applies to any work that infringes the portrait rights and/or moral rights of others.

Request to Teaching Staff in Charge

- If your student is making a submission as a part of your class activity, please be sure to review the information above and thoroughly check with your student that the work does not infringe the copyright, portrait and/or moral rights of others. Please note that even if the submitted work gives an impression of being similar to another creator's work, having commonality only in the idea will not be considered copyright infringement.
